

Couples Thrive!™

We all want to thrive in relationships. However, in the most important area of life-relationships—we are given few skills to do so. The good news is that there is a map and a set of skills you can learn in order to create thriving relationships. This map, marked by powerful principles and practices, can be helpful in any relationship.

In the Couples Thrive™ seminar, you will learn easy, effective, and profound tools that will support you in co-creating the relationship you desire. You and your partner will create a shared vision that will become a beacon to help the two of you stay on your thriving path.

Together, you will develop ongoing practices that will allow you to turn your relationship into a masterpiece. You can rekindle the flames that brought you together and create the great thriving partnership you desire. The choice is yours!

Come experience the...

- tenderness and synergy that emerges as you strengthen your partnership
- depth and sweetness from greater openness and trust
- clarity from having a shared vision
- joy of appreciating and celebrating your successes
- power of creating a positive focus in your relationship

The workshop includes didactic teaching and experiential exercises—all designed to help you strengthen your partnership and deepen the love between you.

We meet from 10:00 A.M.-6:00 P.M. both days. Please keep Saturday evening free to engage in a private home play ritual with your partner. Couples Thrive™ seminars are guided by the husband and wife team of Daniel Ellenberg, Ph.D. and Judith Bell, M.S. They are licensed therapists, executive coaches, facilitators, seminar leaders and relationship experts. They are the co-directors of Relationships That Work and the authors of Lovers for Life: Creating Lasting Passion, Trust and True Partnership. They have spoken on national television and radio and at conferences and other forums. A happily married couple (usually) themselves, they openly share how they get through challenges to create greater intimacy, understanding and trust. Because of their background in psychology and communications, they work with family owned businesses as well as diverse organizations through the Authentic Leadership Institute
